BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE DRAWINGS

FIG. 1 shows the five heading cards employed in one embodiment of the present invention.

FIG. 2 shows an example layout of the five heading cards and the thirty-one adjective cards employed in one embodiment of the present invention.

On page 4, please amend the paragraph beginning at line 11 as follows:

According to a particular embodiment, the present invention includes a set of cards having a first subset and a second subset. (E) Laughing. (F) Kind. (G) Supportive. (H) Friendly. (I) Aware. (J) Compassionate. (K) Forgiving. (L) Helping. (M) Optimistic. (N) Passive. (O) Distrustful. (P) Avoiding. (Q) Insecure. On page 9, please amend the paragraphs beginning at line 1 as follows:

3. The Headings:

Lay the five heading cards 10 from left to right in front of the client in the following order:

[I Really Am Not (2)] [I Am Not Most of The Time (8)] [I Don't Know If I Am or Not(11)] [I Am Most of The Time(8)] [I Really Am(2)]

Note that each of these heading cards 10 has a number. The number on each of the heading cards 10 will govern the number of word cards 20 in each row. Remember that the heading cards 10 need to be laid out from negative to positive, as shown above. The word cards 20 are to be arranged in rows underneath each heading card 10.

4. Laying down the Cards:

The client is then instructed to lay down the word cards 20 as he or she chooses, in a vertical row under each of the heading cards 10. Encourage the client to lay down all the word cards 20 on his or her first impulse as desired. The client may then change them around so that they match the numbers on the Heading Cards 10. Instruct the client to lay down only the number of cards 20 under the number indicated on the heading cards 10. Thus, two heading cards 10 get 2 word cards 20 each, two headings get 8 word cards 20 each, and the middle column has 11 word cards 20. Once, however, he or she is satisfied with the word card 20 arrangement under the heading cards 10, the cards will remain as placed for the rest of the BTTPLANNER interactive experience.
